SUBJECT

Services Rendered in

25X1

The Office of Communications was asked to enlarge and improve the communications facilities in [redacted] on a priority basis during November and December 1962, to meet a national requirement. I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the fine support rendered by your office, particularly the fine efforts exercised by your Supply, Procurement and Transportation Division personnel during that period. As a result of the quick reaction services provided by your staff under the combined pressure of close schedules, difficult tasks and unusual working hours, we were able to fulfill our operational requirements on time. Please accept our thanks for a job well done.
